

GIGGLEIT PROJECT

GiggleIT Title Competition Conditions of Entry

The GiggleIT Team reserves the right moderate all aspects of the GiggleIT Project at all times to ensure entries and publications adhere to best practice education standards and the philosophy of the International Association of School Libraries (IASL).

Policies and practice of IASL may be accessed via the IASL web portal at www.iasl-online.org

- Only one entry per school will be accepted.
- Entries must be received by 31st July 2009.
- In the event of more than one school providing the selected winning entry, a draw will take place. The draw will be moderated by the GiggleIT Project team and the IASL Executive.
- The winning entry will be announced at the IASL Conference 2009 in Padua, Italy and then on the IASL Website GiggleIT Project page.
- The winning school will receive a Gigglecritter Travel Mate and a GiggleIT Goodie Pack containing one each of the following:
 - Gigglecritter Passport
 - Gigglecritter photo album
 - Gigglecritter travel diary
 - Gigglecritter back pack
 - Gigglecritter hats
 - Gigglecritter scarf
 - Secret Instructions
- Ten runners-up will also receive a Gigglecritter Travel Mate and passport.